WOMAN'S WORLD.

Keeping down the stocking basket is the problem which confronts the woman who has to do the darning for a family. If there are small boys with a fondness for playing marbles and climbing fences, she will find her labors much lessened if she will give up darning altogether and take to mending instead. The tops of half-worn stockings similar to those in use should be put away for the purpose. From these pieces mending in grain may be placed under inconvertible holes, the edges trimmed away and the goring neatly made by what is known as "cashmere" darning. When properly done it is almost impossible to detect the repaired place.

In an artist's country home, where the built-in idea prevails even to the candlesticks, the picture frames are unique. They are set into the walls and the glass opens like a little door, so that the pictures may be changed as often as desired. Several sizes and shapes of frames are provided, and, by a judicious use of mats, almost any picture may be made to fit.

Bolles and small center pieces, especially with quantities of open work, can be laundered with very little trouble at home. Castile or any white soap is the best cleansing medium. After washing and rinsing in slightly blue water, stretch them upon a window, taking care that every scallop and petal is well smoothed, and let them dry. They will require no ironing and look like new.

Do mothers know that a great deal of the soda water sold is absolutely unfit for human consumption? The stuff is not made with fruit juice, but with horrible concoctions made in "laboratories." On the East Side the sale of adulterated and worse than adulterated soda water is common, but the vill is not confined to the downtown quarter of the town. Children should be warned against cheap candy. Dentists have been attributing these things.

In these dusty spring days windows will be found to come bright much quicker if thoroughly polished with a dry cloth first. A few drops of ammonia added to water, in which soap powder of some kind has been dissolved, will aid materially in accomplishing good results.

Happy is the woman who has shaken off the tyranny of "things." More clothes, more social obligations, more housekeeping, more furniture, more bric-a-brac than is necessary to happiness; all these become "things" and interfere with life rather than brighten it. Use the footstool Mrs. Browning describes in "Aurora Leigh" as being the business of a woman's life to painfully embroder for a man to stumble over and say "D—n that stool!"

have elected her an honorary captain in the department.

Her royal highness was Princess Marie d'Orleans, and her husband, Prince Waldemar, is Queen Alexandra's youngest brother. Whether there is a big fire the princess is to be seen wading with her heavy boots through the streams of water to where the fire is fiercest, and it is hardly necessary to say that the presence of the princess encourages the firemen to display still greater courage.

In "time of peace" the princess often visits the fire department, watches the officers and watches the men at their athletic exercises.—Era Magazine.

Give Nature a Chance

—BY USING—

Newbro's Herpicide

The ORIGINAL remedy that "kills the dandruff germ."

It destroys the tiny vegetable growth in the sebaceous glands of the scalp, after which the hair will grow as nature intended. Don't wait until it is too late, for chronic baldness is incurable.

The microbe of dandruff and baldness makes the hair dull, brittle and lustreless. It fills the hair with dandruff and causes itching of the scalp. Later, it chokes the very life out of the hair and causes it to fall. Save it with NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE. Extraordinary results follow its use.

Read These Three Letters.

After typhoid fever my physician recommended Herpicide for my hair, which was falling. I used it a number of months and my hair is longer now than ever before, measuring more than five feet in length.

At an early age my hair began to fall. I was almost bald when I was induced to try your valued remedy and now I have a fine head of hair.
